

COMPANY PROFILE

Management Philosophy

OOHASHI contributes to customers and society through recycling. At OOHASHI we are helping to create a richer society as a company, building trust with customers by providing them not only with products, but with reliability. OOHASHI makes use of limited resources, and reuses them, in an effort to create value for customers and contribute to society. We also provide high value added recycled plastic products and make every effort to recycle with the goal of achieving zero industrial waste.

We have provided reliable products through our many recycling technologies developed since our foundation. We remain committed to fulfilling our responsibility to society as a company that is trusted by its customers.
